BIO

Aryeh is an intern in the Hi-Tech Department, working in corporate law, commercial law and corporate finance. He assists start-up companies, entrepreneurs, international corporations and venture capital funds (in Israel and abroad) across a range of industries and throughout the corporate lifecycle, from formation through capital raises, investments, commercial transactions and financing, to mergers and acquisitions.

Before joining the firm, Aryeh worked in the Department of Foreign Relations at the Israeli Ministry of Justice, where he conducted comparative legal research and coordinated with foreign ministries in support of government initiatives. During his studies, he served as a student editor of the “Israel Law Review,” Israel’s leading English-language law journal. He also competed in the Jewish Law Moot Court Competition.

Aryeh holds an LL.B. from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, with a concentration in International Relations
