BIO

Adv. Elad Peleg specializes in corporate and commercial litigation.

Elad has extensive experience representing the firm's clients, including appearances before a wide range of judicial forums, as well as in arbitration and mediation proceedings.

Elad focuses on representing Israeli and international corporations, as well as officers and directors, in class actions and derivative suits involving corporate law, securities law, commercial law, and claims arising under the Consumer Protection Law.

Elad also has experience representing shareholders in corporate control disputes involving significant monetary stakes.

Elad has an academic background in accounting and experience representing certified public accountants in professional negligence claims, as well as officers and directors in claims concerning alleged breaches of fiduciary duties and duties of care, and in matters involving alleged misleading disclosures in prospectuses and public reports.

In addition, Elad has broad experience providing ongoing legal counsel and regulatory advice in consumer protection and compliance matters to a wide range of leading companies in the Israeli market, including in the tourism and aviation sectors (including foreign airlines operating, or seeking to operate, in Israel), as well as the communications and insurance sectors, among others.

Elad is fluent in Hebrew and English.
