BIO

Tamar is a legal intern in the Litigation, Real Estate, and Commercial departments at the firm's Jerusalem office.

Tamar holds an LL.B. from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

During her studies, Tamar participated in the "Representation of Peripheral Communities" Clinic at the Clinical Legal Education Center of the Hebrew University, where she assisted low-income individuals with a variety of civil legal matters. In addition, she served as a research assistant in the field of criminal law.

Prior to joining the firm, Tamar worked as a legal assistant at a non-profit organization dealing with religion and state matters. In this role, she drafted and filed statements of claim, letters, and legal motions as part of the organization's legal department.

Tamar is fluent in Hebrew and Spanish.
