BIO

Lior is a Legal Intern in the firm's High-Tech Department.

Lior specializes in privacy and data protection law, with emphasis on Israel, the European Union (GDPR), the United Kingdom, and the United States. Additionally, she assists clients with commercial matters and advises companies on regulatory and compliance issues relating to their business and technology activities.

Prior to joining the firm, Lior served as a Legal Assistant at the Class Action Aid Fund within the Counseling and Legislation Department of the Israeli Ministry of Justice.

Lior earned her LL.B. from the Faculty of Law at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. As part of her studies, she participated in an exchange program at the Center for Transnational Legal Studies (CTLS) of Georgetown University.

During her studies, Lior served as a Teaching Assistant to Dr. Shani Schnitzer in the Introduction to Israeli Law course and participated in a legal clinic representing underserved communities in Israel's geographic and socioeconomic periphery.
