BIO

Asaf Eylon is a Managing Partner in the firm, and specializes in the field of real estate law, offering legal counsel in a wide range of complex matters. His practice encompasses issues such as land registration, rezoning, residential and commercial projects, construction agreements, real estate-secured lending, and regulatory challenges commonly encountered in real estate transactions. Notably, he also navigates the unique legal landscape of real estate in the Judea and Samaria region.

Asaf earned his law degree with honors from The Hebrew University of Jerusalem in 1995, marking the beginning of his legal career. He joined our firm as a lawyer in 1996 and subsequently became a partner in 2006. Additionally, Asaf holds the role of executive member within the firm.

Fluent in both Hebrew and English, Asaf's proficiency in multiple languages facilitates effective communication with a diverse clientele. His practical expertise, coupled with his understanding of real estate law, positions him as a trusted advisor within our firm, and a valued resource for our clients.

Asaf is ranked in the prestigious Legal 500 guide, reflecting his excellence and expertise in his field.
