BIO

Alon is an intern in the firm's Competition Department.

Alon is a graduate of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem's integrated PPE and Law program, combining studies in law, economics, and philosophy. He was named to the Faculty of Law Dean's List for the 2022-2023 academic year.

Prior to joining the firm, Alon worked as a pre-intern in the Regulation Cluster of the Economic Law Department at the Legal Counsel and Legislative Affairs Department of the Israeli Ministry of Justice. Alongside his studies, he served as a teaching assistant for a Legal Writing and Research course and as a research assistant to Prof. Netta Barak-Corren, contributing to research on post-war governance in Gaza and the challenges facing Israel's international legitimacy. He was also a member of the editorial board of Mishpatim, the Hebrew University Law Review.

Alon speaks Hebrew, English, and German.
