BIO

Goor Koren specializes in various aspects of commercial, civil, and administrative law, with a particular focus on real estate ventures, planning and construction issues, as well as litigation arising from these fields. He offers legal counsel to clients involved in a broad spectrum of real estate projects and transactions, guiding them through all phases, including acquisitions, planning and zoning, construction, joint ventures, financing, operational matters, and property sales.

Goor is recognized by The Legal 500 for his expertise in real estate, planning and construction, and related litigation, where he advises on complex projects and disputes across the sector.

Goor earned his LL.B. and his B.A. in government diplomacy and strategy from the Interdisciplinary Center (IDC) Herzliya in 2010. In 2012, he furthered his academic pursuits by obtaining his LL.M., specializing in business law, also from the Interdisciplinary Center (IDC) Herzliya.

Admitted to the Israel Bar in 2012, Goor brings a comprehensive legal background and expertise to assist clients in navigating the complexities of real estate law and related fields.

Goor joined the firm as a lawyer in 2012, and became a partner in 2021.
