EXPERTISE

Family Wealth Management and Private Clients | Family Law | Corporate and Commercial

BIO

Guy Sagiv is a leading partner Arnon, Tadmor-Levy's Family Wealth Management Group. He works closely with families and family businesses, helping them to construct corporate and long-term family arrangements, and assisting them in transitioning family businesses to future generations.

Guy is ranked by Chambers Global for his expertise in Private Wealth Law, where clients value his deep knowledge of family wealth management, succession planning, and cross-border trust and estate matters.

Guy also advises private clients on family wealth management and planning issues. This includes preparing matrimonial agreements, family trusts and wills, and handling probate and asset management issues. In addition, he is authorized by the Administrator General at the Ministry of Justice to prepare and execute Ongoing Power of Attorney documents, or living wills.

Guy's expertise also extends to advising foreign banks and trust companies. Likewise, Guy counsels new immigrants (Olim Chadashim) and expatriates on Aliyah benefits, visas and immigration and naturalization matters.

Guy received his LL.M. degree, with merit, from King's College London, with a specialty in Trusts and International Business Law, and his LL.B., magna cum laude, from Tel Aviv University. Guy was admitted to the Israel Bar in 2006 and became partner at the firm in 2017.

CHAMBERS GLOBAL

"Guy is the right lawyer to look at for handling complex, multi-jurisdictional estate tax procedures and planning. He is very responsive and pragmatic in his approach."

"Guy is an excellent professional"
