BIO

Daniel Damboritz brings a wealth of experience and expertise in corporate law, and in navigating mergers and acquisitions. His practice focuses on representing startups, emerging and growth companies, and venture capital funds, both Israeli and foreign.

With a deep understanding of the unique challenges and opportunities of the startup journey, Daniel is essentially a strategic partner to both startups and investors, providing them with invaluable counsel.

A trusted ally in the growth and success of startups, Daniel excels in assisting entrepreneurs with the foundational aspects of startup formation, ensuring startups are set up for success right from the beginning. He has advised numerous startups and investors through successful fundraising rounds, from seed funding to growth stages, as well as guiding them through exit strategies, bringing a results-driven approach to M&A transactions. Daniel is recognized by The Legal 500 for his expertise in corporate law and M&A, underscoring his reputation as a trusted advisor to startups, investors, and venture capital funds.

Daniel understands the nuances of negotiating term sheets, protecting the interests of founders and investors, and fostering strong investor relationships, and ensures that every such transaction aligns with the long-term goal of building strong companies.

Daniel earned his law degree from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in 2007. He was admitted to the Israel Bar Association in 2009, and joined the firm as a lawyer that year, becoming a partner in 2019.
