EXPERTISE

Class Actions and Derivative Lawsuits | Commercial Litigation | Cyber and Data Protection | Transportation and Aviation

BIO

Hanital Belinson-Navon is a leading partner in the firm's litigation practice, and has extensive experience in representing clients in complex commercial and civil disputes. With broad legal knowledge, she handles cases of significant financial scope, cases that revolve around extremely delicate issues for her clients, and cases that deal with complex legal issues.

Specializing in class action litigation and derivative claims, Hanital represents clients who are leaders in their respective fields, including aviation, telecommunications, banking, automobile manufacturing, insurance, food, and many others.

Hanital has extensive experience in representing both Israeli and international airlines and tourism companies in litigation proceedings, including class actions lawsuits, with expertise in representation relating to claims about violating Israeli and foreign laws and international conventions. She has successfully represented clients in some of the most prominent and precedential aviation cases in Israel, some of which have shaped Israel's aviation laws, as well as consumer laws that are relevant to the aviation industry. Hanital also provides ongoing consultation and legal support to airlines and tourism companies on various matters, as well as providing legal opinions to foreign companies seeking to operate in Israel, advising them on legal requirements under Israeli law.

An expert in commercial law, securities law and insolvencies, Hanital represents both publicly-traded and private companies, as well as functionaries such as directors, CEOs and others. She has deep knowledge of privacy law and all legal aspects of big data, and is involved in proceedings that deal with precedential and innovative legal matters. Hanital Belinson Navon is consistently recognized by Chambers and Partners and The Legal 500 as one of Israel's leading litigators, reflecting her prominence in handling complex, high-stakes disputes and precedent-setting cases.

Hanital advises her clients from the early stages before legal processes begin, and provides legal risk management and odds assessments in order to prevent and minimize legal proceedings. She also provides ongoing consultation to legal departments in major companies in various industries such as communications, banking and aviation, and advises regularly on regulation and other matters, such as consumer protection laws, privacy law, spam-related issues and more.

Clients rely on Hanital for real-time assistance with crisis management. In this framework, she advises her clients in understanding the legal implications of the incident, and in laying out several courses of action in order to deal with the crisis.
