BIO

Orly Tsioni specializes in commercial law and corporate law, representing Israeli and foreign companies and investors. Her practice combines broad legal expertise with a deep understanding of the business issues underlying a wide range of transactions, including capital raises, mergers and acquisitions, and investment agreements. She represents a variety of high-tech and technology companies.

Orly has an in-depth understanding of her clients' business models, challenges, and opportunities, and provides ongoing, comprehensive counsel on a broad range of matters—both day-to-day and strategic. She works closely with company management and supports major commercial transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, investment agreements, technology transfers, and complex financing transactions.

Orly is recognized by the IFLR1000 guide for her expertise in mergers and acquisitions and corporate law, positioning her as a trusted advisor to companies at all stages of growth—from startups to international public corporations.

Orly joined the firm as an associate in 1996 and has been a partner since 2000.
