BIO

Gil Oren serves as a managing partner at Arnon, Tadmor-Levy, specializing in corporate law with a robust background in various civil areas. His expertise lies in capital markets, encompassing public offerings, mergers and acquisitions, insolvency and investment, and financing transactions.

With over two decades of experience, Gil has been instrumental in navigating complex transactions, including public and private mergers and acquisitions, bank and non-bank financing, securitization, and mortgage sales. He regularly provides legal counsel to leading public companies, offering comprehensive support in corporate and securities law, corporate governance, compliance, controlling shareholder transactions, executive compensation, enforcement programs, public offerings, private placements, and investment and finance agreements.

Gil has played a key role in significant public company debt arrangements and restructuring, representing entities such as companies, controlling shareholders, banks, bondholders, and other creditors. He has also been appointed by the court as an official for companies in insolvency, serving as a liquidator, receiver, and trustee during stays of proceedings.

Among Gil's recent clients are prominent entities such as Israel Corporation Ltd., Discount Bank, State Bank of India, the debenture holders of Habas Investments (1960) Ltd., the debenture holders of Scorpio Real Estate Ltd., the bondholders of Scailex Corporation Ltd., and Hermetic Trust (1975) Ltd. – the trustee of Plaza Centers N.V.'s bondholders.

Recognized by leading international publications, including Chambers Global, IFLR1000, Who's Who Legal, and The Legal 500, Gil has consistently earned acclaim for his contributions to the legal field. Chambers, currently ranking him in both its Israel, Capital Markets, and Israel, Restructuring/Insolvency categories, describes him as "a very experienced lawyer with a strong market reputation for Israeli securities", "a skilled lawyer who is well versed in liquidation proceedings. He also deals with complex negotiations of debt arrangements on behalf of bondholders", and "Gil is highly committed and knowledgeable."

For over a decade, Gil has been a member of the firm's executive committee. He obtained his law degree from Tel Aviv University in 1992, was admitted to the Israel Bar in 1994, joined the firm the same year, and became a partner in 1999.
