EXPERTISE

Commercial Litigation | Family Law | Family Wealth Management and Private Clients | Healthcare and Life Sciences

BIO

Liel Golani Baranes is a partner in the Commercial Litigation practice group and leads the Family law practice. She specializes in dispute resolution, commercial litigation, family and inheritance law, and family wealth management.

Qualified as a mediator in family disputes, Liel serves as a mediator in complex family disputes, amongst others. She is also certified by the Attorney General at the Ministry of Justice for continuous powers of attorney.

Over the course of her career, Liel has represented clients in significant and complex cases, to the extent of tens and hundreds of millions of dollars, providing ongoing legal counsel to large Israeli and foreign corporations, as well as to private individuals.

Liel has lectured on inheritance law, managing estates and financial and prenuptial agreements. She also co-authored a preparatory booklet on inheritance law for the Israel Bar Association's examinations.

Liel joined the firm as a partner in July 2019, following a period working as a sole practitioner. She previously practiced at S. Horowitz & Co. and Yosef Mendelson & Co.
