BIO

Nataly specializes in providing comprehensive support to both domestic and international investors, particularly in the dynamic field of investments in hi-tech companies. Her expertise spans a wide range of clients, including venture capital funds, prominent multinational corporations, and individual investors from around the world.

Nataly has played a pivotal role in some of the most significant M&A transactions within the Israeli ecosystem. Notably, she represented Intel during its acquisition of Mobileye.

Furthermore, Nataly has garnered substantial experience in assisting entrepreneurs and start-ups throughout every stage of their lifecycle. From the initial foundation of companies to their representation in M&A transactions, she has been a trusted legal advisor, guiding her clients through the intricacies of the various processes.

Nataly is recognized by The Legal 500 for her expertise in corporate, M&A, and hi-tech transactions, where she is praised for her role in major deals and for advising leading investors, entrepreneurs, and multinational companies.

In addition to her knowledge and proficiency in financing transactions, Nataly has experience representing foreign banks involved in financing Israeli companies. Her expertise extends to capital raising initiatives and various other commercial transactions.

Nataly provides comprehensive counsel to her clients across multiple areas of corporate law, corporate governance, and financing transactions. She offers her expertise to technology companies and international corporations operating in diverse industries such as software, telecommunications, internet, medical devices, gaming, cyber, smart transportation, and agriculture (agritech).

In her role, Nataly collaborates closely with CEOs, VPs, and directors of start-up companies, providing regular guidance on transactions and strategic matters.

Furthermore, Nataly actively participates as a speaker in various forums, addressing a wide range of legal topics, including engagements with incubators that support the growth of start-up ventures.

Nataly joined the firm as an attorney in 2016.

Nataly is fluent in both English and Hebrew.
