EXPERTISE

Labor and Employment

BIO

Neta Goshen Brami specializes in all aspects of labor and employment law. She provides ongoing legal advice to corporations and individuals with respect to all aspects of employment relations, and has extensive experience in complicated commercial reorganizations, mergers and acquisitions, including conducting due diligence.

Neta assists employers in drafting versatile agreements, such as employment agreements, consulting agreements, non-disclosure and confidentiality agreements, and separation agreements. In addition, she represents clients in procedures and hearings conducted by different governmental authorities.

A certified mediator, Neta has unique experience and qualifications in negotiations and dispute resolution.

Neta offers ongoing legal advice regarding matters such as employee recruitment, employment terms and conditions, compensation and retirement packages, HR policies, employment termination, as well as issues concerning sexual harassment, and equal opportunities in the workplace.

Neta is recognized by The Legal 500 for her expertise in labor and employment law, underscoring her reputation for guiding complex reorganizations, M&A employment matters, and high-stakes labor disputes.

In the context of complicated commercial reorganizations, she advises on assessing legal risks, drafts employment-related provisions for all transaction documents, advises on aspects relating to change of employer, and prepares new employment agreements and retention agreements.

In litigation, Neta regularly appears before regional and national labor courts in various complex disputes, including class action claims. She represents clients in procedures and hearings conducted by different governmental authorities, such as applications for the termination of employment of pregnant employees, employees on military reserve duty and other protected employees, and requests for special work permits (weekend work, overtime etc.).

Regarding foreign employees, Neta assists employers who wish to employ foreign experts and expatriates through the process of obtaining working visas, preparing customized agreements, and advising regarding implementation of the relevant Israeli laws.
