BIO

Hila Pitusi joined the firm in 2021, having completed her LL.B. from Bar-Ilan University in 2023.

During her studies, Hila participated in the Disability Rights Legal Clinic in collaboration with Bar-Ilan University, where she accompanied legal cases in which assistance was given on a pro bono basis to people with disabilities who had no means.

Prior to joining the firm as an associate and later an intern, Hila worked as a pre-intern in the real estate, vocation, and construction group practice.

Hila represents buyers and sellers in first-hand and second-hand transactions, accompanying urban renewal projects, and providing comprehensive engagement in planning and construction projects, including carrying out planning reviews for the purpose of checking project feasibility, submitting appeals and objections, promoting plans, and responding to objections to submitted building permits.

Hila speaks Hebrew and English.
