BIO

Eran Zach leads the firm's White-Collar Crime Department. His extensive experience and achievements in representing leading companies and senior executives at all stages of the criminal proceeding includes providing close professional legal advice during the investigation stage, representation before the authorities at the hearing, uncompromising management of the case in court, as well at the appeal stage. Moreover, Eran is a very accomplished practitioner in civil law, representing clients in cases of significant financial scope, in both commercial and class actions.

After completing his internship at the Economic Department of the Office of the State Attorney – the State of Israel's flagship department for white-collar cases – Eran joined a prominent law firm where he represented large companies and senior executives as a criminal defense lawyer in large and complex cases dealing with financial offenses. He also represented the Ministry of Environmental Protection in criminal cases after receiving a special appointment by the Attorney General.

Eran received his LLB, magna cum laude, and B.A. in business management, magna cum laude, from the Interdisciplinary Center (IDC), Herzliya, in 2001. He joined the firm as a partner in 2019.
