EXPERTISE

Labor and Employment

BIO

Omer specializes primarily in labor and employment law. He provides a wide range of services in this field to clients of the firm, including corporations from diverse sectors and individuals. His work includes ongoing guidance on all relevant aspects of labor relations, addressing issues related to employment terms and workers' rights, drafting employment agreements, accompanying clients in hearing procedures, obtaining permits, and advising on collective labor law matters.

Additionally, Omer engages in litigation in both collective and private labor law, with experience managing numerous cases in both the National Labor Court and regional labor courts. He also has experience representing employers and workers' committees in negotiation processes for the signing of collective agreements.

Omer is recognized by The Legal 500 for his work in Employment.

Omer provides ongoing legal counsel on matters related to employee recruitment, employment agreements, terms of employment, termination procedures, and issues concerning sexual harassment, equal employment opportunities, and more.

In litigation, he represents clients in the National Labor Court and regional labor courts in various complex disputes, including civil claims, class action lawsuits, and collective proceedings.

Omer also has extensive experience in collective bargaining, representing employers and workers' committees in negotiations for the signing of collective agreements across various sectors.
