BIO

Eitan practices real estate, planning and zoning, and commercial law, with a focus on accompanying real estate projects at every stage.His work includes the acquisition of rights, drafting and negotiating joint venture and financing agreements, engagements with contractors, suppliers, governmental and municipal authorities, the sale of project units, and registration procedures, alongside providing ongoing legal counsel on commercial and planning matters.

Eitan has unique expertise in real estate transactions in the Judea and Samaria region, including the management of complex registration procedures characteristic of the area. He also has significant experience representing developers in urban renewal projects (Pinui Binui and TAMA 38), as well as projects under the “Dira BeHanha” program. In addition, Eitan has extensive experience managing and advising on a broad range of residential and commercial lease transactions and is considered one of the firm’s leading practitioners in this field.

Eitan received his LL.B. from Tel Aviv University in 2017, joined the firm as an associate in 2018, and became a partner in 2026.
