BIO

Edo specializes in real estate transactions and urban renewal projects. He represents contractors and entrepreneurs in real estate transactions, as well as private sellers and buyers in first-hand and second-hand real estate transactions. Edo also represents entrepreneurs in urban renewal projects.

Edo received his LL.B. from Bar Ilan University. He started working at the firm as a pre-intern in the real estate department under the guidance of Sigal Shapira. After completing his internship and receiving his license to practice to law, he returned to the firm.

Towards the end of his internship, Edo founded the project Easy Task, which allows practitioners in the field of urban renewal to receive information and tables that optimize the control of projects and the speed of document preparation. Arnon, Tadmor-Levy is among the users of this product.
