BIO

Elad Ofek is a partner in the litigation department at the firm, representing companies and private clients in complex civil disputes in all courts.

Over the years, Elad has represented dozens of clients from all sectors of the economy, including insurance companies, banks and finance companies, high-tech companies, communication companies, real estate companies and more.

Elad graduated with honors from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in 2008 and qualified as an attorney in 2009. He interned with the Honorable Judge A. Grunis at the Supreme Court and served as a legal assistant to the Honorable Judge S. Jobran. Elad has been working as an attorney in civil litigation for over 15 years.

Elad worked as an attorney in the litigation department at Yigal Arnon before becoming a partner and director of the litigation department at another firm, where he specialized in representing private clients, handling class actions, and resolving real estate disputes. In 2024, he returned to our firm as a partner in the litigation department.
