BIO

Ofir is a legal intern in the Real Estate Department, where she focuses on real estate law, planning and construction law, and real estate financing.

During her studies, she served as a pre-intern at the Ministry of Justice, in the office of the Judicial Supervisor for Land Registration in Rehovot. In that role, she drafted legal opinions on topics such as real estate law, condominium law, urban renewal, and civil procedure.

Ofir also took part in a legal aid project initiated in response to the Iron Swords War, through the Faculty of Law at Tel Aviv University. In addition, she volunteered with the Israeli Organization for the War on Poverty (Halav), where she provided legal support through their telephone hotline.
