BIO

Almog is a legal trainee in the Real Estate Department, specializing in real estate law, planning and construction, and urban renewal. She holds an LL.B. from the University of Haifa.

Throughout her studies, Almog gained substantial academic and practical experience. She served as a teaching and research assistant in Labor Law and The Legal Process and Its Boundaries, was a member of the editorial board of the legal journal Mishpat U'Mimshal, and was certified as a mediator through the university's Mediation Clinic for disadvantaged populations. In addition, she completed a legal practicum at the Haifa Municipality, demonstrating her commitment to diverse and value-based legal practice.

Beyond her academic and professional pursuits, Almog was actively engaged in student leadership. She represented her peers on the Student Council and coordinated the Faculty of Law's internship placement program, mentoring and assisting numerous students. Almog was also awarded the prestigious FIDF-IMPACT Scholarship and is an active member of its alumni network.
