EXPERTISE

Commercial Litigation | Real Estate | Corporate and Commercial

BIO

Meir's internship combines the fields of litigation, real estate, and commercial law. His work includes, preparing legal opinions and pleadings, handling real estate and combination transactions, as well as providing legal counsel to corporations on various commercial-legal aspects.

Meir completed his Bachelor of Laws (LL.B) degree at Tel Aviv University. During his academic studies, he served as a member of the editorial board of the "Iyunei Mishpat" (TAU Law Review) and as an editor of the "Dine Israel" law journal.

Additionally, Meir was a member of the Knesset Clinic, through which he gained experience in parliamentary work and in providing legal counsel to leading third-sector organizations.

Prior to joining the firm, Meir served as a pre-intern at the State Attorney's Office, where he was involved in evidence analysis, drafting legal opinions, and handling complex cases.
