BIO

Harel is an intern in the firm's Litigation Department.

Before joining the firm, Harel served as a research assistant to Prof. Sinai Deutch while he was writing his book "Consumer Protection Law - Volume D". In addition, for three years, he was a member of the editorial board and a sub-editor of the "Miznei Mishpat" law review, and took part in several other research projects and enrichment programs in a variety of fields, including law and technology, the laws of war in international law, criminal law, and more.

Furthermore, Harel served as a member of the local council plenum in his place of residence and as president of the student union at Netanya Academic College. He also served as the chairman of the defense counsel array in the disciplinary committees at Netanya Academic College, as a mentor for first-year students, and as a private tutor for students serving in the military reserves.
