BIO

Eyal Aichel specializes in litigation across various sectors, with a primary focus on banking, real estate, administrative law, women's rights, and diverse enforcement proceedings. He adeptly represents clients in various courts and alternative dispute resolution forums.

Furthermore, Eyal is a specialist in corporate rehabilitation, debt settlements, insolvency proceedings, and receiverships. Recognized as a trusted legal practitioner, he is appointed by the courts in complex corporate insolvency proceedings, particularly those involving operational debt resolution.

Eyal is recognized by The Legal 500 for his expertise in litigation and insolvency, particularly in corporate rehabilitation, debt settlements, and complex enforcement proceedings.

Eyal completed his combined studies in law and accounting at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in 2010, and was admitted as an attorney in Israel in 2011. He joined the firm as a legal practitioner that year and, having demonstrated a profound commitment to legal excellence and client representation, was made partner in 2019.
