BIO

Noy is a legal intern in the firm's Litigation Department.

She completed her LL.B. degree at the University of Haifa with highest honors (Summa Cum Laude).

Prior to joining the firm, she completed a pre-internship at the Supreme Court of Israel, in the chambers of Justice Daphne Barak-Erez.

During her studies, Noy served as a research assistant to Prof. Yair Sagi in the field of Administrative Law and to Prof. Michal Gal in the field of Competition Law, and also assisted in additional research projects, including in Corporate Law. She served as an associate editor of the Mishpat U'Mimshal Law Review journal, as well as a teaching assistant in Constitutional Law and Administrative Law courses.

Noy was also a member of the Legal and Education Policy Clinic and worked in the Juvenile Court under Judge Orit Kleinfeld.
